

Task / Activity	Hazardous Events and Potential Causes	Group / Individual At Risk	Likelihood	Severity	Risk	Controls and Precautions Implemented to Reduce Risk	Risk Assessment with Controls in Place	Date Assessed	Date Re-assessed
General activities associated with restoration.	Heavy lifting / manual tasks Typical examples are:-                      Lifting                      Pulling / Pushing                      Digging and manual excavation                      Tree clearance                      Concreting	WAT restoration team	Likely	Major injury	High	It is recognised that within the team of volunteers there exists a vast range of physical capabilities. It is the responsibility of the person leading the team at a working party to ensure that people are given tasks that are well within their capabilities. A person should always seek help with heavy tasks and should not put themselves at risk working alone. Wherever necessary and possible "mechanical aids" will be provided for the lifting and movement of heavy or awkward loads. During periods of intensive physical activity frequent breaks should be taken. Wherever possible rotation of tasks should be carried out to spread the physical loading on people.

14/05/2012

Assessed
By

--

Assessed By